

Welcome to the National Capital Bible Church. We are an independent Bible church. We stand unequivocally for the fundamentals of the faith as contained in the Word of God. Our principal purpose and objective are to glorify God by presenting the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and edifying and equipping the Body of Christ through the teaching of His Word. Our doctrinal statement is available upon request.

Nursery and Sunday School are available during Sunday Services for children from infants to high school. Parents are welcome to join their children in the nursery and Sunday school, or to keep them in the auditorium provided they are not disruptive to other members of the congregation.

The Lord's Table or Communion is held the first Sunday of every month and is open to all who are believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Giving is a matter of privacy between the believer and the Lord Jesus Christ. Second Corinthians 9:7 says: "So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver."

Membership is not required for attendance or partaking of the Lord's Table but is encouraged and welcomed as it demonstrates a commitment to the local body of Christ. If you are interested in becoming a member, please see Bill Senn.

Prayer lists are available in the literature stand. To place or update a prayer request, please contact Bill Senn at wjsenn@yahoo.com or ncbiblechurch@gmail.com.

Cancellation of services or classes may be necessary due to inclement weather or unforeseen circumstances. Cancellation and/or class delay notifications will be sent to all of those who have their contact information in the database maintained by NCBC. To be added to this list please contact Bill Senn.

Wednesday Evening Bible Class: Pastor Freddy is teaching a new series of classes using Gene Cunningham's book, Basic Training Field Manual (for Christians).

A Biographical Sketch of Alfredo (Freddy) I. Cortez

Alfredo I. Cortez, Jr. has been pastoring churches since 1990. He started out with the Baptist General Conference churches that had a particular interest on Filipino-Americans in the United States. Freddy has a Master's Degree in Theological Studies (2003) and a Doctor of Ministry (2007). In 1998, Freddy founded Church of Hope (COH) and has been the pastor since. In 2004, he created Hope Bible Institute (HBI) with the goal of providing free seminary level courses to pastors, deacons, and church workers. HBI had two satellite schools in the Philippines and one in Cameroon, Africa but work was temporarily discontinued when Freddy suffered a medical emergency in 2018. He is happily married to Corine and they are blessed with two daughters, Alex and Emily, and a son, Joshua. He has recently relocated to Virginia sensing a prompting from God and made possible by his wife's recent active-duty orders to Washington, DC.

After Dan Inghram stepped down as the Pastor of the National Capital Bible Church in July, on August 22, 2022, Freddy Cortez agreed to be the "Interim" Pastor of the National Capital Bible Church. He will serve in that capacity until the Pastor selection process is complete, and a new Pastor is selected.
